Assistant Pastor of Congregational Life

Job Overview

As a church, Redeemer Presbyterian is committed to a radical expression of ordinary means of grace ministry. Redeemer is a vibrant, growing church in the center of Detroit with a number of exciting ministries underway that include leading a city-wide church-planting network and a start-up classical Christian school.

Overview

- Full-time pastor with benefits
- Assistant pastor; reports to Senior Pastor
- General pastoral duties (leading in corporate worship, congregational care, administration)
- Development of youth ministry

Qualifications

- Character that is becoming of a minister in the Lord's church as described in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9
- Ordained or (ordainable) as a Teaching Elder in the Presbyterian Church in America
- Committed to working hard, being flexible, staying humble and doing whatever it takes to further the mission of the church

Responsibilities

- Assist weekly with Sunday liturgy and preach up to 12 times a year
- Oversight of small group ministry. The pastor will focus on equipping and shepherding leaders, and also connecting new members/visitors to small groups
- Develop a youth ministry for middle school and high school students
- Work with current staff on leading Redeemer Kids (birth through elementary)
- Attend Session meetings, GLP meetings and General Assembly
- Available to preach/teach in other contexts (church plants, Sunday School, leadership training, chapels)
